

2019 PRO BONO PLEDGE
Attorney Members

As a member of the Nebraska State Bar, I affirm my commitment to provide pro bono legal services as defined in Neb. Ct. R. of Prof. Cond. § 3-506.1. In 2019, I pledge to provide pro bono legal services and will (check all that apply):

Provide a substantial majority of the legal services without fee or expectation of fee to persons of limited means or to charitable, religious, civic, community, governmental and educational organizations in matters that are designed primarily to address the needs of persons of limited means.

I will provide any additional services through:

(1) delivery of legal services at no fee or substantially reduced fee to individuals, groups or organizations seeking to secure or protect civil rights, civil liberties or public rights, or charitable, religious, civic, community, governmental and educational organizations in matters in furtherance of their organizational purposes, where the payment of standard legal fees would significantly deplete the organization's economic resources or would be otherwise inappropriate;

(2) delivery of legal services at a substantially reduced fee to persons of limited means; or

(3) participation in activities for improving the law, the legal system or the legal profession.

I will voluntarily contribute financial support to organizations that provide legal services to persons of limited means.

I will aspire to provide 50 hours of pro bono legal services annually.

I will track my progress in fulfilling this pledge and will report to NSBA at probonopledge@nebar.com when this pledge is fulfilled.

As a law firm, we affirm our commitment to pro bono legal services as defined in Neb. Ct. R. of Prof. Cond. § 3-506.1. In 2019, we will act reasonably to enable and encourage all lawyers in our firm to provide pro bono legal services. In doing pro bono work, we will enable and encourage our lawyers to (check all that apply):

Provide a substantial majority of the legal services without fee or expectation of fee to persons of limited means or to charitable, religious, civic, community, governmental and educational organizations in matters that are designed primarily to address the needs of persons of limited means.

Provide any additional services through:

(1) delivery of legal services at no fee or substantially reduced fee to individuals, groups or organizations seeking to secure or protect civil rights, civil liberties or public rights, or charitable, religious, civic, community, governmental and educational organizations in matters in furtherance of their organizational purposes, where the payment of standard legal fees would significantly deplete the organization's economic resources or would be otherwise inappropriate;

(2) delivery of legal services at a substantially reduced fee to persons of limited means; or

(3) participation in activities for improving the law, the legal system or the legal profession.

Voluntarily contribute financial support to organizations that provide legal services to persons of limited means.

Aspire to provide 50 hours of pro bono legal services annually.

In addition to encouraging our lawyers to do pro bono work, we will (check all that apply):

designate a primary pro bono contact within the firm or legal department.

consider adopting a formal, written pro bono policy.

recognize attorneys and legal staff who participate in pro bono services.

encourage all lawyers to voluntarily contribute financial support to organizations that provide legal services to persons of limited means.

encourage and support partner involvement in pro bono work.

track progress of lawyers in meeting this pledge and report our findings annually.

provide a welcoming environment for persons who receive pro bono services.
